Executive Summary

The Arts Council of Wales commissioned Euclid to identify EU funding for projects focused on or linked to the arts in Wales, across the last 10 years. EU funding works in 7 year cycles, so “the last 10 years” was interpreted as follows:

- The whole 7 years of the 2007-13 period, for which (in theory) full information is available
- As much of the 2014-2020 period as could be ascertained at this time – 2014-2016 being 3 years.

EU funding can be split into two main categories:

- The European Structural & Investment Funds (ESIF), which are mostly devolved back to the member states and, in the case of the UK, then distributed separately in England, Scotland, Wales and NI. The ESIF also covers the Interreg programme which funds projects on the basis of trans-national partnerships and which distributes funds via a number of geographically focused strands and sub-strands (Wales is eligible to participate in 4 of these sub-strands).
- The trans-national funds, which are programmes designed to stimulate collaborative working between partners from several eligible countries, or which support visits and exchanges between countries.

The conclusion is that over 150 projects received around £23m in EU funding in the period from 2007-2016.

Before using this figure in any communications, please note the comments on the following page.

There was a total of around £18m from the European Structural & Investment Funds, with the majority (£12m) from the ERDF (European Regional Development Fund) and the ESF (European Social Fund). There was nearly £6m from the EAFRD (European Agricultural Fund for Rural Development, including LEADER) for rural based projects and none from EMFF/EFF (the fisheries funds).

There was a total of nearly €6m (nearly £5m using the exchange rate at 1 January 2014 of €0.8298/£1) from Interreg and the trans-national funds:

- There was around €2.8m via the Interreg programme (part of the ESIF)
- There was nearly €2m via the Erasmus+ programme for education & training, and its predecessor programmes, Lifelong Learning and Youth in Action
- There was over €1m via the Culture (sub-)programme, now part of Creative Europe
- There was nothing from the Horizon 2020 research & development fund or its predecessor programme, the 7th Framework programme.

- There was nothing from the Europe for Citizens programme, which focuses on projects related to the history of Europe and the EU, and on democratic engagement and civic participation

It is noted that the value of all this EU funding covers a breadth of impacts – from funding which has been of specific benefit to the arts in Wales, to inward investment into Welsh research institutions (especially universities) who have a focus on related areas.

Comments on the Figures

There are a number of points about the figures in this report – all of which would seem to indicate that the figures quoted are likely to be an under-estimate.

Funding for 2014-2020 started late

Many of the new programmes for the 2014-2020 period started late, so in some cases, relatively small numbers of grants have been made so far – meaning that the figures for the 3 years 2014-2016, which is 43% of the 7 years of the 2014-2020 funding period, most certainly do not represent 43% of the likely grants for this period. This slow start to awarding grants typically happens at the start of each 7 year funding period.

For example, the amount of ESIF was nearly £18m for the 7 years 2007-2013, an average of nearly £2.5m per year. However, the total of grants in 2014-2016, a period of 3 years, was £2.8m. Had the funding been at the same rate as the previous period, the total for 3 years should be around £7.5m. One could, therefore, reasonably conclude that “nil” is a significant under-estimate. However, for the purpose of this report, we have had to use a “nil” figure.

For projects, estimates have been used for the grant to the Welsh partner

The only figures available for Interreg and most of the trans-national funds are of the grant for the project, and not the amounts received by any individual partner. The exception is Horizon 2020 / ERC / FP7, where the grants to individual partners are available (in almost all cases). The amounts transferred from the lead partner to the co-organiser partners can only be found by analysing the final financial statements of each and every individual project – this information is difficult to access, and was not possible within the resources available for this research.

To address this issue, all the available information for these grants have been assessed and the number of partners for each project identified. The project grant was divided by the number of partners to get an estimate for the grant to that partner. In some cases, the actual figure will be more, in some cases, less.

This would appear a more appropriate means of calculating a reasonably accurate estimate. The number of partners (and the number of UK partners) are noted in the relevant tables for these programmes.

Methodology

The research aims to provide figures, with caveats, of the amount of funding the arts sector has received from the European Union in the last 10 years.

Most of the relevant data has been gathered via online databases operated by the EC or one of its agencies, or by the Welsh government or related agencies in Wales. For most of these databases, all projects with Welsh partners were checked to see whether they were relevant to the sectors of interest. For some more extensive databases, the initial filtering was through keyword searches. For these, a number of key words used which were agreed with the commissioning body. For the Arts Council of Wales, the keywords were: music, theatre, dance, litera/ry/ture, visual, art(s), studio, crafts, creat(e)/ive/ivity, cultur(e/al). However, it is acknowledged that it is possible that a small number of projects may have been missed as a result of using these particular key words.

For the vast bulk of the data gathered, enough information is available to be confident that the projects are indeed relevant to the broad definition of the arts used for this research. However, for the EAFRD, including the LEADER programme, it is likely that not all relevant lists or databases have been received. Therefore, the figures in this section are likely to be an underestimate.

The programmes that were researched are listed in the table below – these are colour coded to help navigate the various levels of funding. The first four columns show the names of these programmes from 2014 – some were different in 2007-2013 and these are included in the final column.

Prog Type	Programme	Sub-Programme	Strand / other	2007-2013 names
European Structural and Investment Funds (ESIF)	ERDF	Various
	ESF (social fund)	Various
	EAFRD (rural)	RDPS & others

		Key Action 2	Many strands
Trans-National Funds	Europe for Citizens	Remembrance	Projects only
		Civic Society	3 strands
	Horizon 2020 / ERC	Several		FP7

For all of these programmes, the starting point was to identify the databases or downloadable lists of funded projects that are provided by the European Commission (for Interreg and the trans-national funds) and by the Welsh government (for most of the Structural Funds: ERDF, ESF, EMFF/EFF) – several hundred databases or schedules were accessed in this way.

The following table provides a summary of the mechanisms used to access the relevant information.

European Structural and Investment Funds

The European Structural & Investment Funds (ESIF), which are mostly devolved back to the member states and, in the case of the UK, then distributed separately in England, Scotland, Wales and NI. The ESIF also covers the Interreg programme which funds projects on the basis of trans-national partnerships and which distributes funds via a number of geographically focused strands and sub-strands (Wales is eligible to participate in 8 of these sub-strands).

ERDF: European Regional Development Fund ESF: European Social Fund

2007-2013

The Welsh Government maintains an online database of ESIF projects for this period, including for the EMFF (see below). A search of this shows the following grants relevant to the arts in this period. There are two caveats to this table:

- Given the nature of these projects, it is not felt that the entire EU grant is directly relevant to the arts as defined by the Arts Council of Wales – therefore an extra (final) column has been added to the table and an estimate made of the amount relevant to the arts (between 20-50%).
- It is possible that some projects may have been missed – there are 290 projects and the resources for this research did not allow a detailed analysis of each and every one of these projects – those deemed relevant were selected from the project title, theme, name of lead organisation, etc. Therefore this table may be an underestimate.

2014-2020

No information on projects funded by this programme since 2014 has been found.

Interreg

This section includes details of all projects with partners from Wales and which seem relevant to the arts. Those thought not to be relevant to the arts are in italics. Project descriptions can be found in the Appendix.

Europe for Citizens

The heritage sector in Wales has not done well out of this programme – there were no heritage related projects with Welsh partners since 2007. A full list of all projects with UK partners which were funded in this period is contained in the Appendix.

Erasmus + / Lifelong Learning / Youth in Action

This section excludes higher education grants as these are just to Universities for student exchanges, and the information on successful projects gives no indication what subjects the students may be studying.

This section includes all projects relevant to the arts – more details, including the project description, are included in the Appendix.

FP7 / Horizon 2020

Around 300 projects have been funded with UK partners which have some relevance to the broad arts, media and creative industries sectors. Of these, only 4 have partners from Wales, and it is not felt that any of these are relevant to the arts in Wales. More details of these projects are contained in the Appendix.
